Re: Berry vs. HEX, et al.

Dear Mr. Hogan:

Pursuant to your request that we provide a privilege log, the following are the files that I removed from the more than 150,000 computer files that you alleged were relevant to this case. In the course of searching for privileged material, I learned that you requested massive amounts of irrelevant information, falsely claiming it was relevant. In previous correspondence, I cited a few of the more extreme examples of irrelevant material you had requested, such as Mr. Dillon's research regarding breastfeeding.

I note that your current filings admit that it is a time consuming and burdensome task to attempt to search through all of this irrelevant information that you designated. We reserve the right to seek sanctions for the time wasted on this effort.

Very truly yours,

LEX R. SMITH
